

1. County Courthouse Tower, Broad Street
2. First Baptist Church, East Commerce Street
3. Sunset Lake, Bridgeton City Park
4. Cohansey River at the Washington Street Bridge
5. The Bridge that created Bridgeton (would that it were!), Commerce Street
6. Nanticoke Lenni-Lenape Tribal HQ East Commerce Street
7. The original Cumberland National Bank Building (1816), now part of the Bridgeton Free Public Library
8. The Nail House Museum, at entrance to Bridgeton City Park. Behind it is a splicing machine spared from the Cumberland Nail & Iron Works in 1899, and below it the John Whitehead clock from the 1830s.
9. The once front facade of the Broad Street Presbyterian Church (1791)
10. An historic photo of the series of shops on West Commerce known as The Seven Sisters, dating from about the mid-19th century
11. Dame Howell's School, late 18th century, moved from its original site to a site in the part of Bridgeton City Park called "Morningside."
12. A streetscape on Pearl Street in the Northgate section of the Historic District
13. Interior staircase, Shoemaker House, East Commerce Street
14. View along the Cohansey Riverfront, looking South from Commerce Street
15. View of Park looking North from inside the Nail House.